My mom requested that I make her some trays for her diamond painting hobby a few years ago, and these are what I came up with. I have a few versions of the organizer:

- One that uses a rectangular container (I modeled it after the rectangular Elizabeth Ward - Darice containers here <https://shorturl.at/egBCY>)
- One that uses 1.5 inch circular containers
- The circular organizer but uses a little bit less filament

If you print multiple organizers, they can be combined together using a couple of the included PEGs (fitment may vary depending on your print settings).

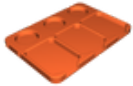

I've had these models for a few years and forgot about them, but recently found them again and want to share. Hope you enjoy!
